

Federal Republic of Lucelia

Background Info

The Federal Republic of Lucelia is a newly-formed federation consisting currently of two constituent internal republics consisting of the Republic of Ellester, and the Republic of Havana

HDI:

0.91

Government:

Internal nations united under a federal parliamentary republic

Around August the 17th, 2024, the two governors of the UR states of Havana and Ellester, which had previously been sovereign states, discussed the future and both determined they should take full control of their respective states once more, and collectively declared independence soon after, forming the Federal Republic of Lucelia, effectively a state union between the Republics of Ellester and Havana.

Independence

Around 21:18 PT (23:18 CT), The secession of the states of Ellester and Havana were announced to the United Republic and the rest of the nations. While Cape Moss and the UR sanctioned the then-recently seceded states, nations such as Ajudige, EireNua, and others welcomed the new federation, with EireNua being the first nation to recognize Lucelia, followed by Jatkosota and the PCBSSR.

Where Everything Stands As Of Now

As of current, most nations recognize Lucelia, including close allies Ajudige and Cascadia. Despite having declared independence over a month ago as of 15 September, 2024, the nation is still formalizing.

Revision #9

Created 20 August 2024 02:24:30 by CheesyJebCheeselord

Updated 15 September 2024 13:14:23 by CheesyJebCheeselord