the Third Republic of Ellester is the third national entity of the Republic of Ellester, with the first lasting from the 1830s to 1948, and its second entity lasting from 16 April, 2023 to October 2023. The Republic follows a parliamentary federal republic, with votes going untampered with to avoid extra votes via. corruption.

It is notorious for political uprisings every election and is infamous for protests. Despite this, Ellester is seen to be a quite uneventful city outside of political actions. The Second Republic of Ellester consists of the reintegrated territories from the preceding First Republic, the Cascadian municipality of Ellester (the national government downgraded to a municipality from 1981-April 2023).

Government

The government of Ellester consists of a parliamentary federal republic, one where the Prime Minister, while taking a leading role, is very reliant on parliament and the Court of the Republic.

The government runs with legislature and the Prime Minister sharing powers, essentially dividing executive and legislative power between 122 members.

The minimum voting age is 13-years old, with the age limit applying to the formation of political parties. The government's system helps Ellester consistently rank the highest spots in terms of political and personal freedom
