Progress Force (Russian: Прогресс Форс, Ukranian: Сила прогресы) abbreviated as PF, is a progressive-liberal party in Ellester.

The party was founded in 2016 after founder Pavel Ljustyn made his own party after studying politics in Lennox. Then under the name Progressive16. His party first tried to come in the national Cascadian elections but the plan was failed. Later they changed their name to Progress Force and they came with 2 seats in the provincial parliament. The main goal was on a progressive-liberal way, making progress in Ellester, and striving for independence.
